

Mike Kerry

Director—DeakinPrime

Mike is a Director of DeakinPrime. DeakinPrime, the corporate education arm of Deakin University, is a pioneer and leader in corporate education and development in Australia having developed landmark partnerships with some of Australia's leading corporations, government bodies and professional associations.

Prior to his current appointment Mike has held a variety of positions at both DeakinPrime and the Faculty of Business and Law of Deakin University.

In the Faculty of Business and Law Mike was a Senior Lecturer in Financial Planning and has been instrumental in the development and growth of both the undergraduate and postgraduate financial planning programs offered by the Faculty. Mike's research interests include retirement planning and the use of computer based technology to enhance client-planner communication. Mike has presented research papers at a number of Australian and international conferences. Mike is co-author of the Wiley publication 'Financial Planning'.

Whilst at DeakinPrime Mike has been a relationship manager for a number of commercial clients including, the Association of Professional Engineers, Scientists and Managers of Australia (APESMA), the Confederation of Australian Management Business Schools (CAMBS) and CPA Australia. In this role Mike has worked with clients, both in Australia and overseas, in developing appropriate learning and assessment solutions.

Outside work related activities Mike is actively involved in the accounting and financial planning professions. Mike has made contributions and representations to senate select committees, business round tables, member based committees and member based organizations.

Mike has a Bachelor of Commerce and a Master of Finance (Honours) from the University of Melbourne. Mike is also a Fellow of the Certified Practising Accountants of Australia and a Financial Planning Specialist.

Contact details

e mike.kerry@deakinprime.com